

LUTHERAN HERITAGE FOUNDATION

Translating, publishing, distributing & introducing
Lutheran literature that is Bible-based,
Christ-centered and Reformation-driven

51474 Romeo Plank Rd. ♦ Macomb, Michigan 48042
(800)554-0723 ♦ www.LHFmissions.org

MISSION PRESENTATION SPEAKER

Rev. Robert Rahn
LHF Founder

Don't miss this opportunity!

When the Iron Curtain came down, Rev. Robert Rahn took up the challenge of spreading the Christian faith to people who'd had little, if any, opportunity to hear God's Word. He founded the Lutheran Heritage Foundation (LHF), an organization dedicated to translating, publishing and distributing confessional Lutheran materials worldwide.

Rev. Robert Rahn with Rev. Slavik Horpynchuk, bishop of the Evangelical Lutheran Church of Ukraine.

Rev. Rahn will tell you amazing stories of Christians surviving generations of hostile atheistic government domination in the former Soviet Union. Pastors were imprisoned and executed; church buildings, Bibles and other Christian printed materials were destroyed. Without the printed Word to sustain and grow their faith, the Christian confession was all but dead.

But when the Soviet Union's doors opened to the West, Rev. Rahn saw the opportunity for God's Word to flourish once again. Establishing Lutheran translation centers throughout Russia, Latvia, Estonia and Lithuania, he spearheaded projects to translate Luther's Small Catechism, The Book

LUTHERAN HERITAGE FOUNDATION

Translating, publishing, distributing & introducing
Lutheran literature that is Bible-based,
Christ-centered and Reformation-driven

51474 Romeo Plank Rd. ♦ Macomb, Michigan 48042
(800)554-0723 ♦ www.LHFmissions.org

MISSION PRESENTATION SPEAKER

Rev. Robert Rahn
LHF Founder

Don't miss this opportunity!

When the Iron Curtain came down, Rev. Robert Rahn took up the challenge of spreading the Christian faith to people who'd had little, if any, opportunity to hear God's Word. He founded the Lutheran Heritage Foundation (LHF), an organization dedicated to translating, publishing and distributing confessional Lutheran materials worldwide.

Rev. Robert Rahn with Rev. Slavik Horpynchuk, bishop of the Evangelical Lutheran Church of Ukraine.

Rev. Rahn will tell you amazing stories of Christians surviving generations of hostile atheistic government domination in the former Soviet Union. Pastors were imprisoned and executed; church buildings, Bibles and other Christian printed materials were destroyed. Without the printed Word to sustain and grow their faith, the Christian confession was all but dead.

But when the Soviet Union's doors opened to the West, Rev. Rahn saw the opportunity for God's Word to flourish once again. Establishing Lutheran translation centers throughout Russia, Latvia, Estonia and Lithuania, he spearheaded projects to translate Luther's Small Catechism, The Book of Concord, and other books integral to the Lutheran faith. Today, four seminaries operate in Latvia, Siberia, Ukraine and Russia, their classrooms stocked with books produced by LHF.

After his experiences in the former Soviet Union, Rev. Rahn realized there were other walls ready to come down. In 1994, he was contacted by Rev. Andrew Mbugo Elisa, who worked for the Anglican Church in Sudan, Africa. Rev. Elisa had heard about Lutheranism and wanted to learn more. LHF sent five copies of Luther's Small Catechism and a Book of Concord. From there, the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Sudan (ELCS) was born.

Rev. Rahn with the graduating class of Sudanese deacons and deaconesses.

Today, Rev. Rahn serves as congregations' connection to this incredible work that the Lutheran Heritage Foundation is doing in more than 80 countries around the world.

DON'T MISS THIS OPPORTUNITY!

Come hear Rev. Rahn's inspiring accounts of God's church persevering and growing under the most adverse circumstances. Come hear how you can take part in this "second Reformation," putting books into the hands of new Christians, books that will help form the foundation of their faith.

"I have seen the faces of many people reflect the joy of holding their very own copy of any book, and it just happens to be the Catechism."

Rev. Robert Rahn
LHF Executive Director

of Concord, and other books integral to the Lutheran faith. Today, four seminaries operate in Latvia, Siberia, Ukraine and Russia, their classrooms stocked with books produced by LHF.

After his experiences in the former Soviet Union, Rev. Rahn realized there were other walls ready to come down. In 1994, he was contacted by Rev. Andrew Mbugo Elisa, who worked for the Anglican Church in Sudan, Africa. Rev. Elisa had heard about Lutheranism and wanted to learn more. LHF sent five copies of Luther's Small Catechism and a Book of Concord. From there, the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Sudan (ELCS) was born.

Rev. Rahn with the graduating class of Sudanese deacons and deaconesses.

Today, Rev. Rahn serves as congregations' connection to this incredible work that the Lutheran Heritage Foundation is doing in more than 80 countries around the world.

DON'T MISS THIS OPPORTUNITY!

Come hear Rev. Rahn's inspiring accounts of God's church persevering and growing under the most adverse circumstances. Come hear how you can take part in this "second Reformation," putting books into the hands of new Christians, books that will help form the foundation of their faith.

"I have seen the faces of many people reflect the joy of holding their very own copy of any book, and it just happens to be the Catechism."

Rev. Robert Rahn
LHF Executive Director

To learn more about the worldwide mission efforts of LHF, call (800)554-0723 or visit us online at www.LHFmissions.org

To learn more about the worldwide mission efforts of LHF, call (800)554-0723 or visit us online at www.LHFmissions.org