500 years ago,

Martin Luther knew his people needed two important things: the Bible translated into their own language, and a Small Catechism to help them understand it.

Today,
Kids and families all
around the world
need these same things.

Our students are helping show children everywhere the way to Jesus!

The Lutheran Heritage Foundation (LHF) is a mission organization that continues what Luther began 500 years ago: they translate Bible storybooks and catechisms into more than 80 languages of the world. These books are given free of charge to people searching to know more about the Savior.

By partnering with LHF, our mission offerings will provide Bible storybooks and catechisms for children in countries like India, China and Peru. Every $5 we gather gives a child his or her own book about Jesus!
