

LUTHERAN HERITAGE FOUNDATION GRANT UPDATE:

LUTHERAN BOOKS FOR MISSIONARIES AROUND THE WORLD

LWML - CHESAPEAKE DISTRICT MIGHTY MITES AT WORK!

Thanks to the generous gifts of LWML women throughout the Chesapeake District, LCMS missionaries and partner churches around the world are being supplied with good Lutheran books, translated into the languages of the people they serve.

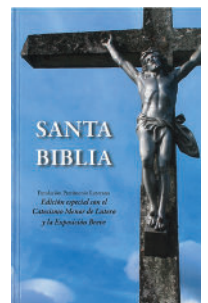

At their 2018 LWML Chesapeake District convention, members voted to send $4,000 to the Lutheran Heritage Foundation (LHF) for a project called “Lutheran Books for Missionaries Around the World.”

Since then, LHF has been able to answer the calls for books like Luther’s Small Catechism, the Book of Concord and A Child’s Garden of Bible Stories from missionaries in Tanzania, Kazakhstan and the Dominican Republic.

LHF has provided a steady supply of the Spanish Bible with Small Catechism in the Dominican Republic, where Rev. James and Deaconess Christel Neuendorf (pictured at left, above) are sharing the Gospel with Spanish speakers not only in their own church, but also in the communities around them.

“I received a phone call last week from one of our members who serves as the president of the council of residents in a government housing project,” Rev. Neuendorf shared. “He frequently asks me for Bibles to give to residents, which I happily supply him from our bottomless stash provided by the saints at LHF. This time he was calling me from San Juan, where he was at a meeting of all the government housing projects on the island. Apparently, our Bible distributions have been causing a stir in Ponce, and other presidents would like us to come!”

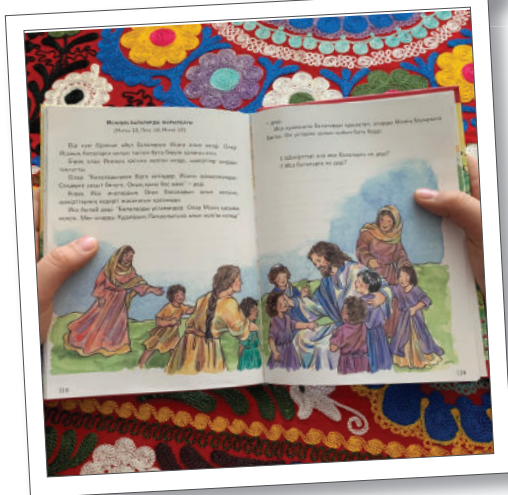

In Tanzania, LHF coordinators Tuomo Simojoki and Rev. George Ondieki have worked with Rev. Shauen Trump (pictured at left), LCMS area director for Eastern and Southern Africa, to distribute and introduce the Swahili language Book of Concord and Small Catechism.

“The congregations and pastors are thirsty for resources and training. Some of the pastors came from Anglican backgrounds, a few from Methodist, and also some from Pentecostal backgrounds. Because of a lack of training, many African pastors’ theology is shallow and limited,” explained Tuomo Simojoki. “But a change has come, from hearing good Lutheran theology. They are impressed by the depth and Biblical truth of our Lutheran teachings. The congregations were impressed that a Church had such materials and they want more!”

RESOURCES FOR THE CHESAPEAKE DISTRICT

Sometimes, LHF resources are needed by missionaries right here at home! Thanks to LWML support, LHF also has been able to answer calls like these from the Chesapeake District:

“I am the librarian at the Frederick County Adult Detention Center in Frederick. We are one of only three ICE detention facilities in Maryland and our demand for Spanish language materials is very high. We would very much appreciate any donations of the Spanish Bible with Small Catechism you could provide to us. I would think 20-25 would probably meet demand for a good 12 months, though if it is known I have a supply of them, they may go faster!”

– Joe D., Frederick MD

“I am a member of Living Savior Lutheran Church in Fairfax, Virginia. My wife’s native language is Korean, and I am interested in introducing her to the Lutheran faith by providing her with Korean-language Lutheran materials, such as the Small Catechism or other parts of the Book of Concord.”

– Andrew H., Vienna, VA

“Requests for our good Lutheran books continue to pour in from all corners of the world,” said Rev. Dr. Matthew Heise, LHF executive director. “People everywhere need to hear the Gospel of Jesus Christ – in a language that they can read and understand. By providing for the printing of catechisms and Bible storybooks, the LWML mites from the women of the Chesapeake District are providing an inestimable gift, for which we’re deeply grateful.”

In appreciation for the LWML Chesapeake District’s $4,000 mission grant to the LHF mission, thanks for their support will be acknowledged in an upcoming LHF publication: Augsburg Confession with 95 Theses and Catechism in the Cebuano language for the people of the Philippines.
