Bible Books for Ethiopia

“How Can I Understand?”

For children, the Bible's hundreds of pages can seem overwhelming. They need books, written on their level, to introduce them to Jesus.

In today's Ethiopia (in northeast Africa), millions of Lutheran children don't have a single Bible storybook.

There are more than 9 million Lutherans in Ethiopia. One Lutheran church body, called Mekane Yesus, is nearly four times the size of The Lutheran Church–Missouri Synod!

And there are hundreds of Lutheran schools and Sunday schools packed with eager young students, but teachers face a dilemma: they have no Bible storybooks from which to teach.

You can help change that – for just $5 per child!

The Lutheran Heritage Foundation (LHF) is an LCMS recognized service organization with the mission of translating and publishing our good Lutheran books for people around the world.

For every $5 your children can send to LHF, the organization can print a Bible storybook or Small Catechism in the languages of Ethiopia, such as Amharic and Oromo. These books are then given free of charge to families wanting to know more about the Savior.

Thousands are waiting...how can you help?
