

Where is Spanish spoken?

Spanish is an official language in more than 20 countries of the world and is spoken by more than 427 million people!

Your mission offerings will tell a Spanish-speaking child about Jesus!

Every $5 you send to the Lutheran Heritage Foundation gives a child in Central or South America with their very own Bible storybook, translated into the Spanish language!

In the pages of A Child's Garden of Bible Stories, children will read how God loves them and sent His Son to die for them.

The Promised Savior

Adam and Eve had sinned against God. But God loved them very much. He did not want them punished forever for their sin, so He gave them a promise. When the right time comes, I

For children who own no other books, the Spanish Bible story-book will be a treasured gift that will be read again and again.

People in many parts of Spanish-speaking Central and South America live in poverty.

Books are an unaffordable luxury.

Guatemala

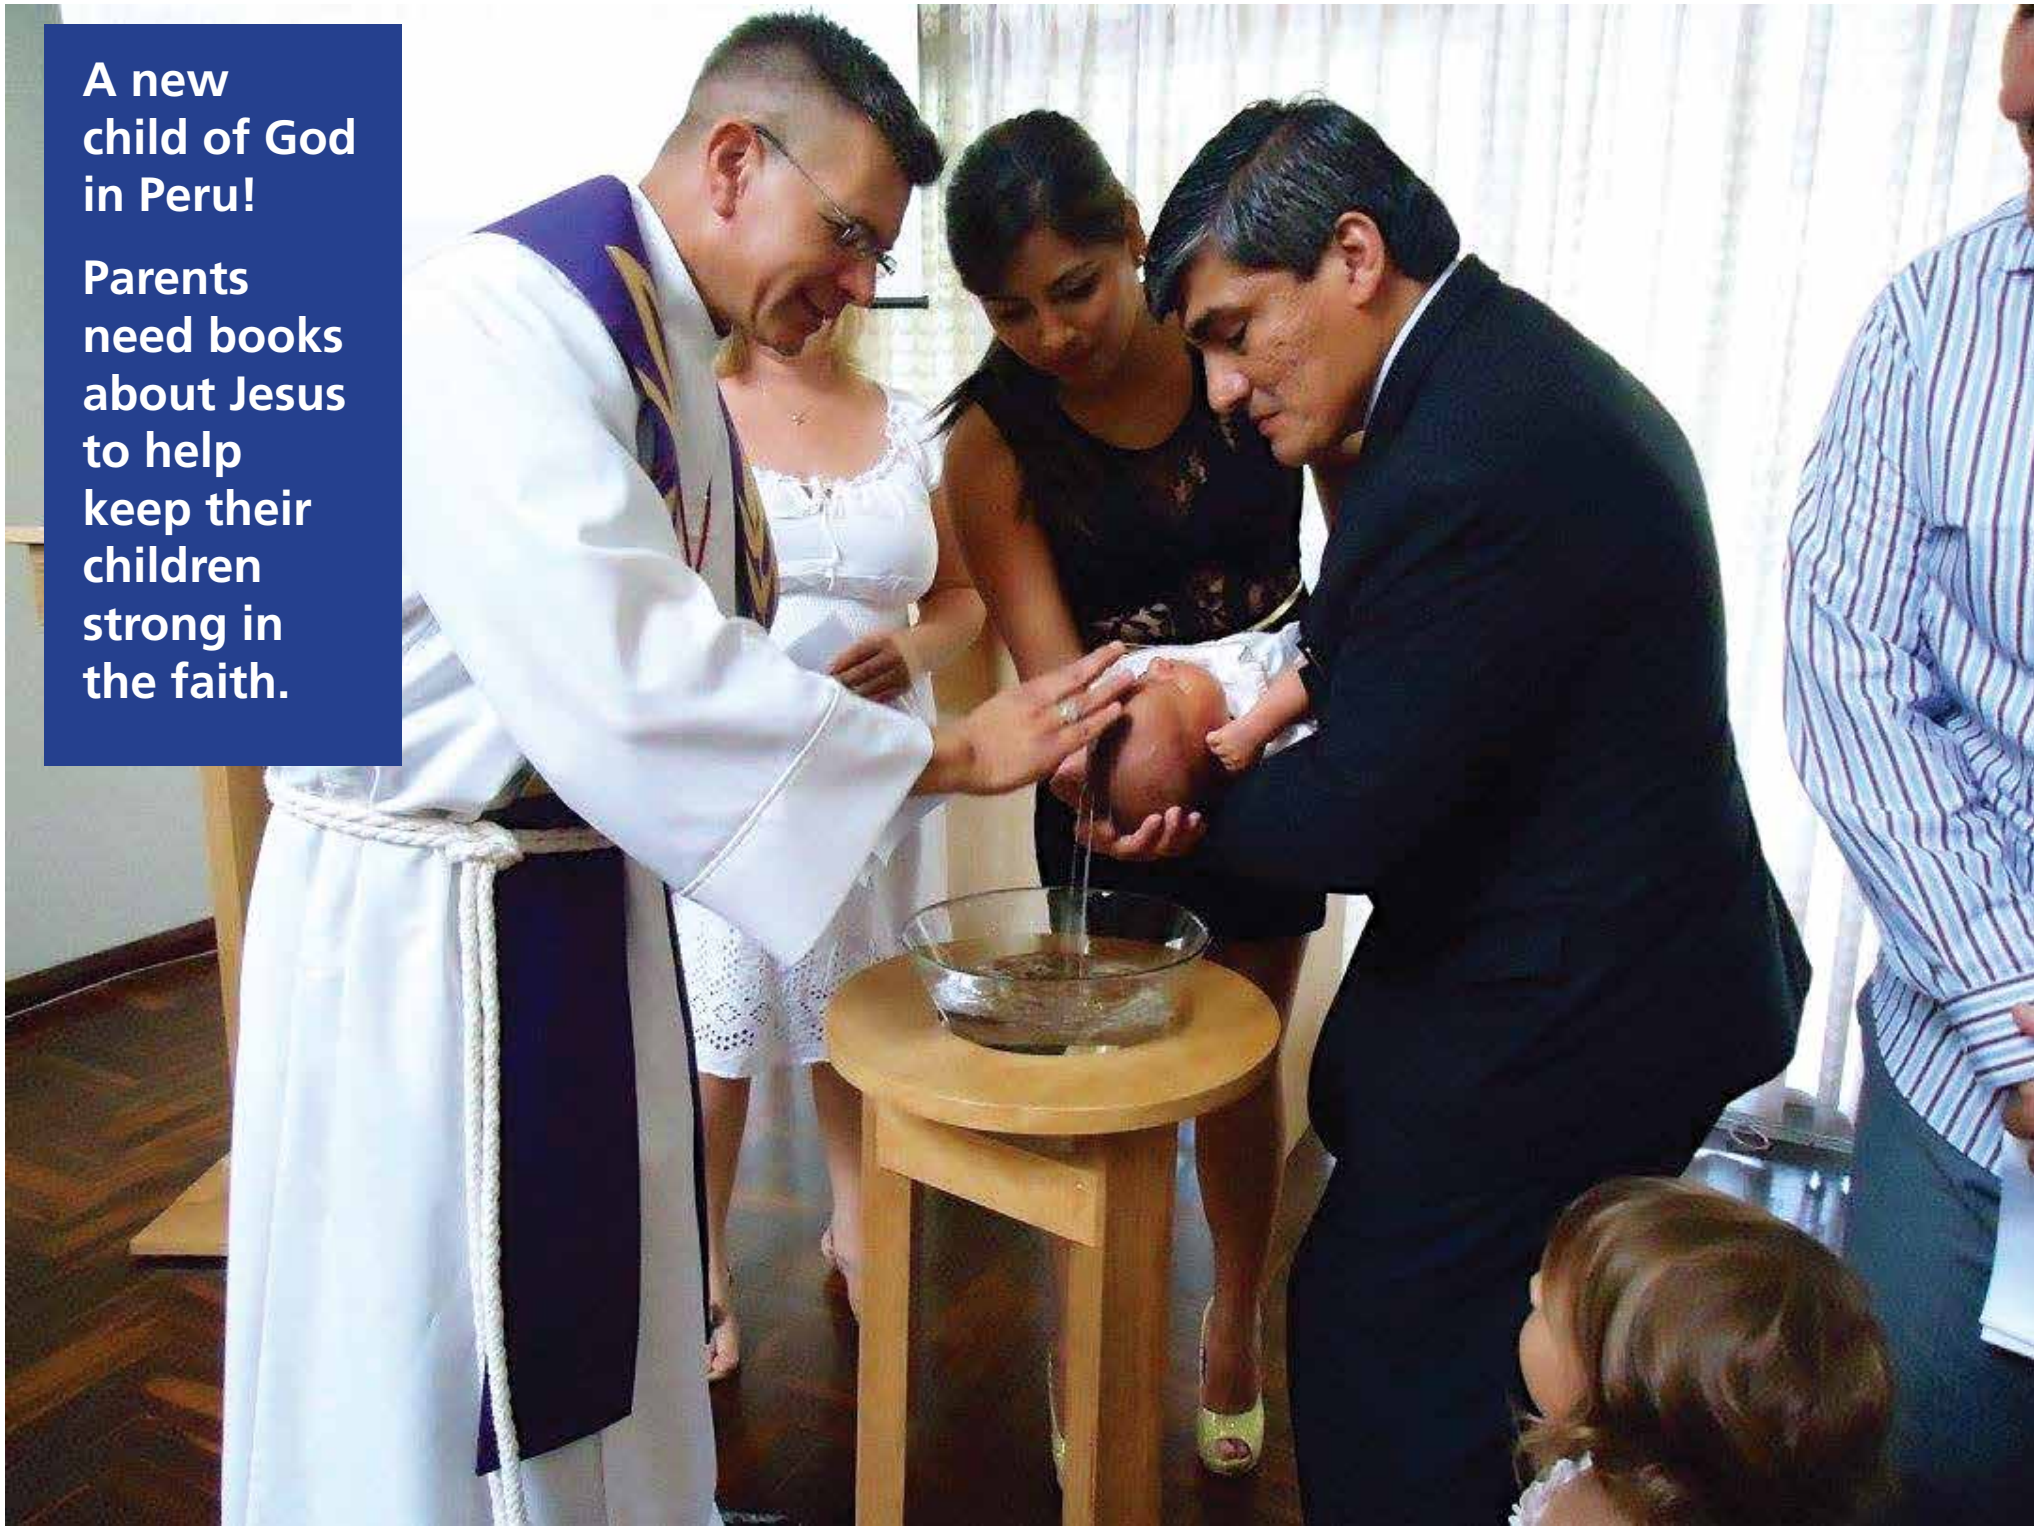

Casa de Misericordia – Castillo Fuerte
(Mighty Fortress – House of Mercy) mercy house in Lima, Peru

LCMS missionaries in places like Mexico, Peru and Uruguay can't wait to have the Spanish edition of A Child's Garden of Bible Stories to teach God's Word in Sunday school.

"This book would also be a wonderful gift to give our families," said Caitlin Worden, an LCMS deaconess serving in Lima, Peru. "Sometimes for our kids, these are the only gifts they receive for Christmas, or the only gift they get for their birthday. So these things become so important in brightening their life and showing them God's love."

A new child of God
in Peru!

Parents
need books
about Jesus
to help keep their children strong in the faith.

The Spanish Bible storybooks you're helping provide will also be used to teach religion by LCMS partner churches' Lutheran schools, like this one in Chile.

Mexico

For a new believer, a simple Bible storybook sometimes makes the Bible easier to understand.

Your support of the Juan 3:16
mission project is an answer to a prayer!

