Juan 3:16

Bible storybooks for children in Latin America

sponsored by the Lutheran Heritage Foundation

God sent His Son for ALL the world – including Spanish-speaking children of the Americas.

But how can they know Jesus without knowing His Word?

To the father with a $1.75 per hour minimum wage job in Guatemala, or for a mother combing through the rubble of their earthquake-stricken home in Chile, a Bible storybook for their children is an unimaginable luxury. Yet what child doesn't need to learn of Jesus in a language they can read and understand?

Your child is helping to tell them about Jesus.

With their mission offerings, your child will help provide free Bible storybooks in the Spanish language for children and families in places like Dominican Republic, Peru, Mexico and Uruguay.

Best of all, it's just $5 per book!

As parents, you know how important books are for a child's learning. Imagine how precious their own Bible storybooks will be for Latin American children who don't own a single other book!

With your help, children and families – those who are Lutheran and others who have never heard of Jesus – will receive their very own Bible storybooks that will share the Gospel again and again.
