The dollars and quarters your child drops into the offering plate are sending Bible storybooks to children thousands of miles away.

To children like Immanuel.

In the country of Papua New Guinea (often called PNG), the people need God! In many ways, going to PNG is like stepping back in time. Village families live off the land in thatched grass homes without electricity or running water.

And though most PNG people identify as Christian – and even Lutheran – the pull of belief in traditional spirits (spirits of departed ancestors, spirits of the earth, and so on) is still strong.

Your children are helping to shine the Gospel light in PNG!

With their mission offerings, they're helping a Lutheran mission organization called the Lutheran Heritage Foundation to translate and publish books about Jesus for PNG families – in their own language of Tok Pisin!

Every $5 the students collect provides a child in PNG with their very own copy of a book like A Child's Garden of Bible Stories or Luther's Small Catechism, a treasure to be handed down for generations!
